www.chatthillsqa.us

The Chatt Hills Barn Quilt Trail is a community art project designed to celebrate the rural heritage of Chattahoochee Hills. It features a collection of colorful painted quilt squares affixed to barns and outbuilds. A map is provided to guide visitors on a self-driving tour of the trail, along with a website that shares the heritage stories of the resident hosts. Visitors are welcome to take photos from the public road, and are invited to shop in the local businesses.
